

March 8th 2012

International Women's Day Observation

Ms Usha Padhi, IAS

The special Secretary to the Govt of Odisha, Panchayati Raj Department

Ms Usha Padhi Speaks...

→ OBSERVATION

www.saiinternationalschool.com

The International Women's Day was observed in SAI International School with great feeling and spirit. A special assembly was organized to celebrate the Day. Ms Usha Padhi, IAS, the special Secretary to the Govt of Odisha, Panchayati Raj Department, graced the occasion as the chief guest.

The function started with the Morning Prayer and a welcome song dedicated to the honor of womanhood. A power point presentation was shown to the students and then a ramp show by students of class IX representing famous women personalities of the country was showcased which was highly appreciated by one and all.

International Women's Day celebrates women's emancipation, free thinking. The day highlights that an educated woman can only raise intelligent children, which in turn creates a self-reliant society. This is a universal day and is celebrated all over the world, as it endows the women with dignity, honor and self respect. This day also marks the celebration of social, economic, cultural and political achievements of today's woman.

See All Photos

→ HER TALK

The Chief Guest Ms Padhi spoke about the achievements of the Indian Women personalities and cited examples of women showing great valor and fortitude to bring name to the Nation. She also gave numerous examples of International women leaders who have had created a lot of impact in the society and brought amazing changes for a better cause. She answered to many curious questions of the students. She also remarked that observation of Women's Day is not only for the women alone but for the upliftment of the society and the Nation as a whole.

