

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY 2013

8th march
SAI International School
Bhubaneswar

'A woman is the epitome of tenderness, care and wisdom' and on this women's day, the Sai family came together to salute the indomitable spirit of womanhood. International women's day observed on the 8th of March was celebrated with pomp and splendor in the school auditorium.

Saioneers gave a fantastic beginning to the event with a welcome song honoring the identity of a woman that left the audience mesmerized. This was followed by a power point presentation acknowledging some of the great women that this world has seen. Our girls dressed up as famous Indian and International personalities like Mother Teresa, Indira Gandhi, Kiran Bedi, Oprah Winfrey, Eleanor Roosevelt and Kalpana Chawla and walked up to the stage with poise and dignity.

The 'Chief Guest' Ms Roopa Mishra IAS, District Magistrate and Collector, Khurda District, Government of Odisha graced the occasion with her presence. Ms Roopa Mishra is the first Odia lady to have topped the All India Civil Services Examination in the year 2004 in the Odisha cadre.

Ms Mishra shared with us her thoughts on gender equality and advised the students to be good human beings. Her message to the students was "The school is a wonderful platform that inherently induces equality, humility and respect for others in the young minds."

Ms. Shilpi Sahoo, the Trustee of our school presented a memento to our Chief Guest as a token of appreciation and our Principal, Mr. Harish Sanduja gave the vote of thanks and marked the importance of this day.

We at Sai international believe that 'International Women's day' is not just another day. It is a day to acknowledge the finest creation of God and applaud her unmatched courage, conviction and compassion for other beings. In a world which talks about 'heroes' we take this day as an opportunity to compliment the 'She-ros.'
