

INAUGURATION OF SUSHILA DEVI AUDITORIUM

by Shri. Jugal Kishore Mohapatra, IAS Development Commissioner and Additional Chief Secretary, Government of Odisha.

The Sushila Devi Auditorium was inaugurated on the 27th of April, 2013 by Shri. Jugal Kishore Mohapatra, IAS, Development Commissioner and Additional Chief Secretary, Government of Odisha.

The Multi-purpose Auditorium is a centrally air-conditioned, state of the art facility that will play the venue for conferences, workshops, stage performances, movie screenings, seminars and special lectures for students and teachers. The auditorium boasts of the best audio-visual equipment, screens, a digital lighting system, a digital effect surround sound system and a seating capacity for over 140 people.

After the inauguration ceremony, the program commenced with a short but extremely enthralling invocation by the SAI choir. "The future of the country depends primarily on its human resources", said the Chief Guest Shri Jugal Kishore Mahapatra, while addressing the students and teachers at the newly inaugurated Sushila Devi auditorium of the school. He said that institutions that enrich the human resources with good moral values are required to build a strong socio-economic nation. He also stated that in addition to a good infrastructure, good quality teachers are required who will help foster good values in our future generations to be. Shri Mahapatra congratulated the school for its global standards and added that he will be most happy to help in all of his capacity to contribute to SAI International School which itself is contributing to the society at large.

An interactive session then followed where the inquisitive students asked questions to the Chief Guest ranging from his view on the development of Odisha to the Universities that impart quality education in Economics. Shri Jugal Kishore Mohapatra enlightened the students with his answers and affirmed the development of the state of Odisha and stated that the future is bright and shining.

With the addition of this latest and excellent facility SAI International School campus has added a new and vibrant dimension to its existing impressive infrastructure.
